General Terms and Conditions of our Service

Terms and Conditions are usually the most boring content, unless you are a lawyer or like self-inflicted pain. Nobody reads them until Murphy's Law strikes and things start to go wrong. Well, we would like to make it a bit less boring here, but keep in mind that this is an important part of business and needs to be clear and legally correct. And this is only a translation. The binding agreement is in Thai language, because we are registered in Thailand and the law requires it.

Our website was built to help customers book their tickets for public transportation. Simple and easy. And we provide additional travel-related information – check it out by clicking on any station name to find unique information about that place. With 12Go you can make reservations for public transportation services. When the text says “we”, “us”, “our” or “12Go Asia” it means 12go.asia. The term “you” refers to you, the valued customer visiting our website and making a reservation yourself or via one of our agents or re-sellers or in any other way.

If you use our website, you agree to our terms and conditions and are bound by them. No excuses, no modifications. If you
